THE DAILY SENTING RUFUS KING & WM. H. WATSON, PROPRIETORS. Under the Name and Firm of Rufus King & Co.

MILWAUKEE:

Wednesday Morning, June 10. Minnesota Election.

The Chicago Tribune has additional figure from the election in Minnesota by which it appears that the Republicans have already 61 delegates and the Democrats 47. Giving the Demociats all the rest of the district, which it is scarcely possible that they will have, so large are the Republican gains, there is still sufficient margin to give a Republican majority in the Convention. Of course, there may be errors in the figures given but the probability is strong that our friends have carried the Territory handsomly.

BLIND OF ONE EVE.—In the recommendation of the powly-elected Governor of New Hampshire, that a longer term of residence and the ability to read and write, be included among the qualifications of electors, the News discovers a fresh outbreak of Know Nothingism and further possible the Republicans and Know Nothings. proof that the Republicans and Know-Nothings are one and the same thing. As usual, the premises of the News are false and its deductions ditto. Governor Haile's recommendation, that no persons shall be allowed to vote unless they can read and discover no defect in South Carolina Democracy, where a law has just been passed compelling foreigners to reside two years in that State, after they have been fully naturalized, before they can vote. As little can this vigilant organ detect any wrong in Missouri, or Kaneas Democracy, where foreign-born residents, entitled under the organie act to vote, have been disfranchised by Border Raffian Legislature, and the wrong aided and abetted by the Sham Democratic press every. where. O: course, if there was the slightest sincerity in the News' professed devotion to the interests of adopted citizens, it would be as prompt to expose and rebuke all assaults upon their rights, when committed by Democrats, as when perpetrated by Republicans. The very fact that it makes a great ado about "Republican" warfare upon foreigners, but has not a word to say against that waged by its own friends, is of nine-tenths of the inhabitants, then the cuese sufficient and significant proof that its outcey is for political effect merely, and that, at heart, it does at care a pin how much foreigners may be "oppressed."

Missouri Replying to Virginia. The Richmond, Va . Examiner, a thorough going Democratic sheet, in the course of a long article discussing the slavery question, makes use of the following remarkable language: For oursalves we rejoice to believe that African slavery is as permanently and immovably fixed and fistened to our soil as are the bedded ores of the Alleghanies. It is slavery that has impressed stability more our institutions and half mpressed stability upon our institutions, and h ld Virginia to conservative principles in the midet of radicalism around her. It is shavery that has or ratioansin around not. At is surely that made her people quiet, contented and happy, while the northern States are ranting and raving with fanaticism of all sorts and descriptions. with fanaticism of all sorts and descriptions.

True, it imposes upon our people r country mode of life, and therefore presents those combinations of given and energy which are so essential to the physical and material prosperity of a State.

Therefore it is that Virginia is not chequored over the relief and country, therefore it is that splendid harbors-everything in nature to make her the greatest and most prosperous State of the whole Union; yet falling steadily downward in ignorant that fired Scote existed, down to the ignorant that fired Scote existed down to the whole Union; yet falling steadily downward in the scale of States, till, within another decade, Wisconsin, the youngest of all, will exceed her in free white population! And yet her press and her statesmen of this day continue to hig to their bosom the poison serpent which is drawing her lite-blood away.

To the article in the Examiner, the St. Louis

To the article in the Examiner, the St. Louis Democrat, which is fighting in Missouri the fight for free white labor and for emancipation from slavery, replies as follows:

slavery, replies as follows:

Slavery prevents the "building of railroads and canals," the advance in "the magnificent monuments of art," the erection of "pillar and portico of parian marble," in the stead of the deserted hovel, but nevertheless every other institution and interest of the State, its standing abroad and its improvement at home, the wealth, the weland interest of the some, the wealth, the welfare, the civilization of its own people are to be fare, the civilization of its own perpetuation and perpetuated and perpetuated. And all this is certicularly put forth in the nineteenth century, in the American republic, and in the colutions of a journal that claims to be a democratic organ!

Bankriping claps its hunds at such philosophy. Eackruptcy claps its hands at such philosophy. Treason gladdens at such philosophy. Hell yawns at such philosophy. The white working men of this land—the bone and sinew of the country who have built up the liberties of this mighty nation in peace, and defended them valiantly in war—are now told that their labor must not come in and again amplement if it is to displace or sunation in peace, and detended them war—are now told that their labor must not come in and geek employment if it is to displace or supercede the Liber of the slave! Sons of the nonof Bunker Bill, of Yorktown, of New Orleans, of the blood-stained fields of Mexico, are pushed aside and told to make room for the slave. Wussuch efficitly over before paralleled any wherey such efficitly over before paralleled any wherey
the men of the plow, the loom, the anvil, tomusfacturers and mechanics, the snewy sons of tolin every walk of life, are coolly informed that slavery may prevent all advancement for them, may exclude their enterprizes and crush out their factories, foundries and lorges, but still slavery
must be perpenanted and extended at all haz-rds.
What will be the response of the white men of Missouri—what will the artisans, the merchants, Missouri—what will the artizans, the merchants, the capitalists of St. Louis—the free working men upon our rivers and our highways, in the salds a first the wines. fields or in the mines—say to such "philosophy".
We leave them each to make his own enswer to this published creed of the min the Richmond Examiner. we learn from the Republican, at which it was resolved to raise $5,000 as a bonus to the State to secure the location of the House of Refuge at that place. COURTS SUPREME BENCH-SHOEMAKER'S COURT Council Bauffe City, Iowa, May 2, 1857. To all to whom these presents may come: great Be it known, that I, Simcon Sheemaker, its ing.

Be it known, that I, Simcon Shoomaker, itstice of the peace of said city and state, repesing special confidence in the reatement that an annkasant row has existed for some time between Job Q— and his wile Betsey, do hereby dissolve the bonds of matrimous heterofore existing between them, very much to their matrial disgust. And furthermore be it known that I having been duly elected to this position by the Mormen vote, do, in harmony with the satisface polygamic doctrines of Saint Brigham Young, hereby seal and deliver the said Botsoy to C—— Esq., to have to use, and to hold in any manuer that to him may agem good. Witness my Land and the great seal of the court hereants appended, on this, the 2-th day of May, A. B.
1857.

SIMEON SHOEMAKER, J. P.
and cs-officio marnings breaker and maker.
This record, from the authenticated docket of Esquire Shoemaker, was introduced with apparent confidence on the part of the defence; and the prisoner being put on the stand testified in the substance the same thing, assuring the jay.
The search sharessee saled that Shoemaker is of the substance the same thing, assuring the jary that he was the lawful husband of Mrs. Q.—lay. The court, however, ruled that Shoenocker had ne authority in law, and did not amount to as much as a man, and that the prisoner was an aminifigated liar. The chief justice then launched out into a moral desertation, distinguished alike for its purity and beauty of thought, and its elegance and classity of expression.

The jury ratical, and in just one hour and gance and chastity of expression.

The jury raticed, and in just one hour and twenty-five minutes, returned with the following We, the jurors of this august court, after sel emn and deliberate deliberation, and reflective consideration in the momentums case submitted to us, do find—

1. That Esquire Shoemaker's commission expired on the 1st day of April 1357.

2. That Esquire Shoemaker had no authority to grant a divorce in the case of Q. vs. Q.

3. That the defoudant U. is guilty in manner as he stands charged in the induction. and form, as he stands charged in the indica ment.

We recommend that C, be put on a log suffered by the river rolling. That Mrs. We be locked up in her state-room, and kept securely until she arrives at the place of her destination that the shell be delivered over to her friends:

until she arrives at the place of her destinate when she shall be delivered over to her friends and the sentence he executed forthwith.

PETER JONES, Foreman.

While the judge was preparing to pass sentence upon the convicted and tridy wretched ray, the steamer stopped at a woodpard—price ray, the counsel obtained a private interview, and man, the steamer stopped at a wood artistic price, and a counsel obtained a private interview, an advised culprit to agitate his pedal extremute and disappear in the thick hazel brush and underwood that skirted the shore. Prisoner await the private and the price of derwood that skirted the shote. Prisoner sweated in his great agony, and trembled with meets for, was secretly assisted up the gangway plank by his connect—assisted up the gangway plank by his connect—fourteen deck hands tiving piscols and yelling like decils incarrate, were soon howling on his trade. But darkness covered his person and his shame with a robe of common charity, and he escaped, never to return. Next meaning the sentence was completed, and the morning the sentence was completed, and disgraced female was delivered over to friends who awaited her arrival at R-VILIKINS.

Thomas Francis Meagner.—This eloquent prater will deliver two lectures at Albany Hall, on Friday and Haturday evenings of this week. The subject of the first lecture will be "St. Patrick's Day-Irish Memoria -National Anniversaries, their significance, beauty an harmony with the Bepublic;" and of the second, "The Life, Times and Conius of Daniel D'Connell." The process of these Lectures go to aid in the erec tion of the new City Asylam, under the charge of the Sisters of Charity. Mr. MEAGHER deserves a crowded house, as well for his own cake as for that of the noble charity in behalf of which he apeales. Tickets are to be had at Arnold's and at Neidecken's, East Water Street, and at the goor of the Hall on the Boy DROWRED,-Yesterday effernoon the body of Conrad Ward, a boy of S years old, who was missed from his home last Friday, was found in the river in the rear of Engine House No. 6. This was a fine little fellow, who had a great passion for going about bosts and water, and has on one or two eccasions before narrowly examped from drowning. He was probably playing near the river, as was his usual habit, when he met with his melancholy fate. The father of the boy carried the body to his house on Muran street, and the scene which followed, when the poor mother saw her darling boy a lifeless corpse, was really heart-rending. This should serve as a warning to partita, to be careful of their little ones, and not allow them to run loose through a large

Heron Street Bridge.-We are happy to notice that this bridge is fast approaching completion, and we now begin to feel that our many complaints about the downess of the work, have not been in valu, and we also feel encouraged to take an occasional " peep" at Oneida street bridge, the progress of which we mean to keep an eve on hereafter. We have thus far refrained from speaking of the shameful tardiness with which the work on this bridge has been conducted, because we considered one slow bridge enough to keep before 'the people at time. As the Charter forbide any appropriation for such purposes by the Common Council, the expense of the celebration must be defrayed by private contributions. Buithis source will be all sufficient, if our civisous generally will each put in his mite. It is not proposed, as it would not be just, to ask a few to bear the burden, but it is hoped and expected that it will be generally and cheerfully shared.

THE GLOBE BANK, -This new Institution, located in "the Albany," on Michigan street, commenced business Monday morning. It starts with a capital of $100,000, soon to baincreased, and will no doubt command its full abare of business. The Cashler, Mr. W. R. Fusz-Man, late Teller of the Wiscorsin Marine & Fire Insurance Co. Bank, came to this of y a year and a half ago, an en-tirestranger, and has won his way to his present respon-sible post by strict integrity, conceded capacity and unremitting attention to business. LIQUOR DEALERS IN OUR CITY.-It will be seen by an anstract of the Report of the Chief of Police, in the Common Council proceedings published this morning, that the whole number of persons in this city, dusting in liquor and subject to livener, is five hundred, and eigh-teen. Of these, 16 t are in the Third Ward, several of the largest wholesale houses and most of the lowest retail shops, being in that Ward. As an inevitable result, th Third Ward is rather more prolific of rows, fights and Hiram Warner's Estate. ther breaches of the peace, than any other Ward in the

ICE CREAM AND STRAWBERRIES .- These delicions refreshments are served up every evening at Anderson's Ice Cream Saloon, on Main Street, and the public seem to appreciate the benefit of these invuries, for every evening since the weather has been fine enough, this fashionable resort has been crowded with both young and old. We dropped in last evening and made a practical examination of their good things, and have no hesitation

THE PAIMER ADDITION .- Dr. JOSLIN informs us that over one hundred tota have already been sold in this addition, and many of the purchasers are laying out their grounds for the creation of dwellings, which they intend to make their permanent homes. Dr. J. has em. ployed a competent man, who will be on the ground overy day from 1 to 0 o'clock P. M., to wait on persons desiring to examine the loss, and who will give all necessary

PERSONAL .- Col. Jos. LATEROP, one of the proprietors of the Daily News, started on Monday, on a tour torpugh the Eastern States, in the hope of recruiting his less h, which, for some months past, has been serionely logured. We earnestly hope that travel and relaxation may prove beneficial, and that a few weeks will restore our friend Latence to us, in renewed health and with his accustomed good spirits. RAIDROAD IRON .- The iron for the various soads comes along radidly. The brig Fox trings 200 tons for the Milwaukee & Superior R. B. Co., and the schooner Sophia Smith 150 tons for the same company. The bank Badger State has 655 tons, the schooner Acontlas 1690 bars, and schooner L. J. Furucil 150 tons, for the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R. Co.
